Presenting a five-bedroom period terrace house in central Barrow, this property boasts sizeable rooms, offering ample living space.

The practical layout includes a reception room, dining room, kitchen with a breakfast bar, utility room, downstairs toilet, and a family bathroom. One of the bedrooms features fitted cupboards, providing additional storage.

Set on two floors, the house showcases bay windows and retains charming period features. The property includes a walled and gated rear yard and a front garden, providing both private and outdoor spaces.

While in need of updating in parts, this period terrace house in central Barrow offers potential for improvement and personalisation.
