Superbly presented six-bedroom period end terrace house in central Barrow, this property boasts sizeable rooms, offering ample living space over four floors with the basement level being a one bedroom self contained flat/annex.

On the ground floor the layout includes a spacious lounge, dining room, a fantastic kitchen and access to the rear annex which has three rooms for multiple uses.

There are five bedrooms in the main house with en suite shower to the master, bathroom and shower room.

The basement consists of a kitchen area, lounge, bedroom, shower room and a separate WC. It has its own entrance and can also be accessed from the main house.

There is a rear garden which is a good size and a garage.

An impressive home offering charm, character and warmth, highly recommended to view.
